Market Commentary

The FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Index (AUD Hedged) Net TRI produced a total return of 3.6% for the month ended 30 November 2018. Regionally, Hong Kong was the strongest performer, delivering a total return of 8.7% in local currency terms as U.S.-China trade fears eased in the lead up to the G20 meeting. The poorest performing region was the U.K., delivering -4.5% for the month as an aborted M&A deal and Brexit fears weighed.

Hong Kong based retail REIT, Link (823) delivered a total return of 9.1% for the month in local currency terms. During the month Link announced the acquisition of Beijing Jintong Roosevelt Plaza for HK$2.9bn (~US$377m). The company continues to increase its exposure to China, with this deal taking its mainland weighting to 9.5% of total assets.

Troubled U.K. retail REIT, Intu Properties (INTU) delivered an abysmal total return of -41.9% for the month in local currency terms after the consortium comprising The Peel Group (27% shareholder), The Olayan Group and Brookfield Property Group, aborted its indicative takeover proposal citing uncertainty around macroeconomic conditions in the U.K. On the same day, INTU advised that it will cut the FY19 dividend by an amount yet to be disclosed.

Amazon announced it would split its second U.S. headquarters (dubbed "HQ2") in two locations; Crystal City in Northern Virginia and Long Island City in New York. The decision most directly benefited U.S. listed office/residential REIT JBG Smith (JBGS) due to its significant exposure to Crystal City, with the stock delivering a total return of 7.5% over the month. Amazon will lease up to 500,000 square feet of existing office space and also acquire from JBGS several existing buildings and land parcels with a potential density of up to 4.1m square feet. Financial details of the transaction were not disclosed. No listed REIT has a material exposure to Long Island City, however the news is positive for REITs with New York exposure.

U.S. industrial REIT, Prologis (PLD) announced an agreement to form a US$890m joint venture (JV) in Brazil with Canadian based real estate investment company, Ivanhoe Cambridge. PLD will retain a 20% stake in the JV that will be seeded with a portfolio of properties from its balance sheet. The JV will mainly target the São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro industrial markets.

U.S. power shopping center REIT, SITE (SITC) announced that it has closed a JV with two Chinese institutional investors. SITC will retain a 20% stake in the JV that will be seeded with 10 properties from its balance sheet valued at US$607m. SITC will use the proceeds to reduce short term debt.

Sun Communities (SUI-US), a U.S. focused manufactured housing REIT, announced that it will take a strategic investment in Ingenia Communities Group (INA) - an A-REIT that owns similar properties in Australia. SUI will invest approximately US$54m (A$73m) for a 9.9% ownership stake in INA. SUI and INA will also form a 50/50 joint venture with the goal to establish and grow a manufactured housing community development program in Australia.

U.S. office REIT, Boston Properties (BXP) announced the sale of US$1.0bn of 4.5% senior unsecured notes due in 2028. The proceeds will be used to refinance completed green projects and finance future eligible green projects.
